

Corporate M&A/Deals Tax Director Cheltenham or Cardiff

Our award-winning Taxation, Transaction Services and M&A teams are nationally recognised for their outstanding work in executing corporate finance transactions.

Hazlewoods Corporate Finance team has advised on 134 deals worth over £1.2 billion in 2024, placing us in the top 10 of UK financial advisers

The team have offices across the South West and South Wales, working closely with a wide variety of corporate acquirers, together with many major private equity houses and corporate banks.

We are looking to strengthen our offering to our clients by building a dedicated team of tax specialists to advise on all aspects of tax that impact Corporate and Business transactions.

Alongside a highly competitive salary and enhanced benefits package, we also offer hybrid and flexible working.

The right person will:

- Co-ordinate, develop and deliver tax due diligence reviews on target businesses and for vendor due diligence assignments.
- Highlight key tax risks arising and advise on tax warranties and indemnities required and review taxation implications of sale and purchase agreements

- Understand the tax aspects of transaction structures and potentially be able to advise on optimal tax planning strategies that support the commercial rationale.
- Have a good understanding of corporate and group re-organisations and be able to articulate this to our clients in a clear and concise manner.
- Know how to do pre-disposal reviews of the tax aspects of businesses for which sales mandates are held.

You will thrive in this role if:

- You are ACA/ACCA/CTA qualified
- You have extensive UK corporation tax, capital and employment tax experience in a transactions environment.
- You have outstanding communication skill and ability to build rapport.
- You are able to quickly identify the core issues.
- You are able to identify risk and/or potentially price affecting issues
- You are client focused, with an emphasis on quality and accuracy
- You have an ability to understand the bigger picture whilst maintaining an eye on the detail
- You have the ability to thrive under pressure.
